

Biography Richard Jarnhed

Richard Jarnhed is a director and screenwriter. He was born in Stockholm, Sweden in 1972. During the years 1990-92, Richard worked with PR at U.I.P. Sweden (Universal, Paramount, MGM) and has had assignments in film and TV productions since 1993. For several years Richard worked as a top ranked First assistant director and 2nd unit director on feature films and TV series.

Over the years, he has directed, produced and written scripts for a dozen short films, which have been shown at film festivals and Swedish Television (SVT).

Richard has directed on eight TV series, five dramatized documentaries and commercials. He has also produced Entertainment shows for SVT.

As a screenwriter, Richard has been part of the writers room both as a creator and as a writer. He has also written two novels.

Music is central in Richards life and he has worked as a Music Supervisor on several projects, both films and TV series.

Richard is one of the founders and co-owners of the production company Tulpa Creatives AB, which develops film and TV series projects.

For Richard it is central to have a clear vision when creating a concept: The key to a timeless and successful result is to maintain the vision both overall and in detail all the way from synopsis to delivering online episodes.
